Membership Classifications/Fees

Applicants pay an Admission Fee which is a one-time payment equal to their first year's dues. The Admission Fee is waived in certain circumstances. Special dues rates may also apply (see below). Membership dues are based upon the earliest year of admission to any bar in any state or country and location of applicant's office. Fees for judicial members and those without an office are determined by their legal residence.

Nonresident members are billed annually payable May 1. Student members are billed annually payable September 1. All other members are billed semi-annually payable May 1 and November 1.

The Admission Fee is waived for anyone whose adjusted gross income is less than $80,000, and all judicial and academic applicants; applicants in public law offices or public service law offices; law students; law school graduates who apply for membership within two years of their date of graduation and former members.

* Special Rates: applicants and members admitted prior to 2005 and whose adjusted gross income is less than $80,000 per year may pay $14,750 semi-annually.

Sustaining Members voluntarily pay $650 annually to support the New York City Bar's public policy and pro bono activities.

Special Circumstances: If it is financially difficult to join or maintain your membership, please contact the Membership Office at 212.382.6665 or membership@nycbar.org

All fees and dues are nonrefundable. Dues payments to the Association may be deducted as an ordinary and necessary business expense to the extent permitted by the Internal Revenue Code. We are required by Section 6033(e) of the Internal Revenue Code to inform you that 2% of the current dues payment is not deductible because it is attributable to lobbying activities.
